

Financial Strength Ratings

At Brighthouse Financial, we are seizing the opportunity to evolve the way we do business.

Our world is changing every day and the ways in which we save, invest, and plan for the future are evolving. We are on a mission to help people achieve financial security. Our portfolio consists of annuity and life insurance products that play an essential role in helping to protect what people have earned and ensure it lasts.

We will deliver these products through a simple and transparent process, making it easy to do business, increasing value to those we serve, and minimizing some of the complexity, confusion, and cost that can sometimes get in the way.

We are focused on the future. Drawing on our history as part of MetLife, Inc., we have the experience and expertise to build a business today that will keep the promises we make tomorrow. Our foundation, based on the tenets of experienced leadership, operational strength, product design, and strategic distribution, is reflected in our operating companies' financial strength ratings from the following independent sources:

² Ratings as of August 2018. Operating entities collectively rated include Brighthouse Life Insurance Company (formerly MetLife Insurance Company USA), New England Life Insurance Company, and Brighthouse Life Insurance Company of NY (formerly First MetLife Investors Insurance Company); note, Moody's and Fitch do not rate Brighthouse Life Insurance Company of NY.

³ A.M. Best's Financial Strength Rating is an independent opinion of an insurer's financial strength and ability to meet its ongoing insurance policy and contract obligations. A Financial Strength Rating is not assigned to specific insurance policies or contracts and does not address any other risk, including, but not limited to, an insurer's claims-payment policies or procedures; the ability of the insurer to dispute or deny claims payment on grounds of misrepresentation or fraud; or any specific liability contractually borne by the policy or contract holder. A Financial Strength Rating is not a recommendation to purchase, hold, or terminate any insurance policy, contract, or any other financial obligation issued by an insurer, nor does it address the suitability of any particular policy or contract for a specific purpose or purchaser. Ratings explanations can be found at www.ambest.com.

⁷ Assets under management refers to general account investments and separate account assets.

Ratings as of August 2018. Ratings apply to Brighthouse Financial's operating companies' financial strength and claims-paying ability, and not the performance of any of its products.
